On arrival at Muscat Seeb International Airport you will be welcomed by a Plaza Lounge airport representative holding a signboard with your names on and escorted to the VIP Plaza Lounge to relax while your Omani visas are issued. Afterwards, collect your checked luggage and clear customs. A Laterallife representative - Arabica Orient Tours - will be waiting for you as you exit the airport terminal, they will transfer you to your hotel (approx. 45 drive) for your 3 night stay. The rest of the day is at your leisure.

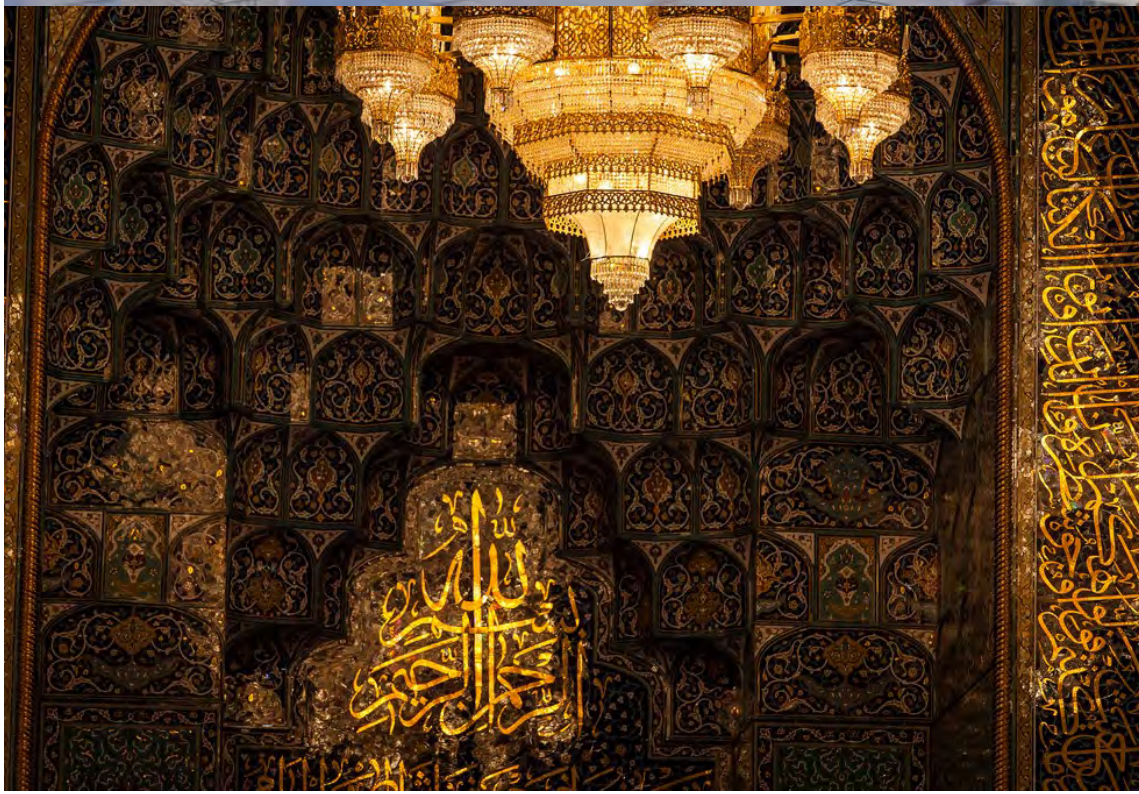
Day 3 - Visit Muscat. Afternoon at leisure.
This morning you will be met at your hotel by your English speaking driver / guide for a tour of the Omani capital Muscat.

The exquisitely decorated marble clad Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque (closed Fridays) will be your first stop. The mosque, which was inaugurated in 2001 and has a capacity for 20,000 worshipers, is a stunning example of modern Islamic architecture and is dominated by a 50 meter tall minaret; it also contains one of the largest Persian carpets in the world. A drive along the palm-lined Corniche will then bring you to the Royal Oman Opera House for a photo-stop of this stunning example of modern Arabian design.

Next, continue to the commercial centre of Muttrah. Here, you will plunge into Muttrah's famous and atmospheric souq. This labyrinthine traditional marketplace throngs with people and costumes from all over Oman and is packed with innumerable stalls selling wares ranging from household goods to antique silverware, gold, and frankincense. Lunch (payable locally) will be at the atmospheric and relaxed Kargeen Caffe where you will be able to order Arabian and Oman dishes.



In the afternoon take the scenic Old Riyam Road up over the mountain to old Muscat.

The heart of the Omani capital is in an exceedingly picturesque location and is ringed by an amphitheatre of jagged bare rocks. To the ancient Greeks, Muscat was known as the 'Hidden Port' as it is so difficult to detect from the sea. Two imposing 16th-century Portuguese built fortresses named Jalali and Merani dominate old Muscat's harbour and have played both a central and also a notorious role in Omani history. On the water's edge and flanked by the guns of Merani and Jalali, is the Al Alam Palace (closed to visitors) with its façade of gold and blue which was built as the sultan's residence in 1972.

On arrival, drive past the attractive whitewashed government ministries and enjoy a photo stop by the harbour overlooking the Al Alam Palace, then visit the Bait Al Zubair Museum (closed Friday). This traditional Omani house contains a fine private collection of over 5,000 objects (including traditional Omani weaponry, jewellery, costume, household utensils, furniture, manuscripts, and early photographs) which showcase Oman's rich cultural heritage.

After your visit return to the Al Bustan Palace hotel where the remainder of the day will be at leisure.

Note on Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque Visit: A dress code applies when visiting the mosque. Ladies must wear a headscarf, a long sleeved blouse, and a long skirt or trousers to cover the ankles. Men must wear long trousers and shirts that cover the shoulders. Under 10s are not allowed into the main prayer hall.

Accommodation: Al Bustan Palace Hotel, Lagoon Room.
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 4 - Al Hamra Oasis Cycling Tour, arrive Jebel Akhdar.
Leave the coast behind you this morning and strike out into the wild interior of Oman. En route pass through the strongly defended Sumail Pass which separates the Eastern Hajar Mountains from the Western Hajar Mountains and literally bristles with watchtowers.

After a drive of about 2 hours and 30 minutes you will arrive at the pretty mud-brick village and an oasis of Al Hamra—the stunning setting for your privately guided afternoon cycle ride. The Al Hamra Oasis Bike Tour will take you on a gentle ride through the oasis—stopping along the way at points of interest.

The route is 22 km in length and follows quiet roads past serene green fields and exotic date palm plantations. Along the way enjoy the timeless scenery, stop to see a traditional falaj irrigation canal and visit a 400 year old house turned living museum where you will learn about the traditional way of life of the villagers.

Cycle Details: Oasis Bike Tour
Distance: 22 km
Timing: 2.5 hours
Level: Easy / Beginner.

After your morning workout, cross the plain of Nizwa to the highly scenic Jebel Akhdar (Green Mountain). A serpentine road will take you up into the mountains and the Sayq Plateau altitude 2,000m) where your luxurious hotel occupies a spectacular location overlooking a dramatic gorge. Dinner this evening will be at the Alila Hotel.

Note on Cycling Tour: This privately guided cycling tour is along quiet flat paved roads and is suitable for everyone who can ride a bicycle. Cycling helmets are provided locally for this excursion.

Accommodation: Alila Hotel, Jebel Akhdar, Ridge View Suite.
Meals: Breakfast & Dinner.

Day 5 - Explore Jebel Akhdar.
Explore the Jebel Akhdar with your guide this morning. Far from the bustle of modern life, the region offers an escape to solitude, nature, fresh air and the most amazing panoramic views. Surrounded by mountains, small hamlets, old, uninhabited villages, caves and canyons, as well as countless small roads connecting to new valleys and views, the Alila is located close to the Sayq (pronounced 'Sirq') Plateau, an extensive upland plain surrounded by craggy summits and steep gorges.

The Mediterranean climate here makes it ideal for the cultivation of many types of fruits. The area around the Alila is particularly renowned for growing walnuts, pomegranates and Oman's famed damask roses, which bloom from March to May, covering the mountainside in swathes of pink. Take a walk through the rose terraces for an unforgettable experience. The roses harvested each year are used to make Omani rose water, a staple in every Omani household used as a culinary flavouring, fragrance and medicinal remedy.

Sights of interest include the rose-water making town of Sayq, the local beauty spot of Wadi Bani Habib with its abandoned village of the same name and the crash site of an RAF Venom bomber (a legacy of the Jebel Akhdar war of the late 1950s). On returning to the Alila the remainder of the day will be at leisure. Dinner this evening will be at the Alila Hotel.

Note on Optional Activities: The Alila has a number of self-guided trails and has also recently acquired several mountain bikes for the use of guests.

Accommodation: Alila Hotel, Jebel Akhdar, Ridge View Suite.
Meals: Breakfast & Dinner.

Day 6 - Nizwa Jabrin, arrive Wahiba Sands.
Descend from your mountain eyrie this morning and visit the cultural capital of interior Oman - Nizwa. Located in the centre of a large oasis at the junction of four streams at the base of the Jebel Akhdar mountains, Nizwa is dominated by its great fortress.

Local tradition claims that the djinn (wizard) built the fort, but it was actually constructed in the 17th century by Imam Sultan bin Saif I. Nizwa has one of the largest souqs of the interior and is a good place to buy Omani souvenirs including khanjar daggers, and silver jewellery. Every Friday morning Nizwa plays host to a very atmospheric livestock auction.

Browse through Nizwa's attractive traditional souqs, then visit the fruit and vegetable market where there will be an opportunity to sample the local delicacy of halwa - the Omani national sweet. Next, drive on to nearby Jabrin, home to a 17th-century fortress that is considered to be the finest in all of Oman, then continue your journey to the magnificent sand sea that is the Wahiba Sands (about 2 hours).

On arrival, check-in at your desert camp. Towering up to 100 meters in height, and coloured in soft pastel shades from apricot to flaming salmon, the Wahiba Sands were made famous by the exploits of the British explorer Sir Wilfred Thesiger in the 1940s and 1950s and for many visitors represent the quintessential image of Arabia. The sands, which are also known as the Sharquiya Sands, are the eastern most extension of Arabia's famed Rub Al Khali desert (Empty Quarter), and are named after the Yal Wahiba tribe who are predominant in this region of Oman. The sands are constantly on the move, travelling an estimated 10 meters every year.

Dinner this evening will be at the Desert Nights Camp.

Accommodation: Desert Night Camps, Wahiba Sands, Deluxe Tented Suite.
Meals: Breakfast & Dinner.

Day 7 - Wadi Tiwi Bimah, arrive Muscat.
This morning there will be the magical opportunity to witness the sunrise in the desert.

After breakfast, you will be driven to the onetime important maritime and boat-building centre of Sur where dhows are still made by hand. In the 1980s, British adventurer Tim Severin built a replica 9th-century dhow named "Sohar" at Sur and subsequently sailed it to China - thus proving that long distance maritime trade was certainly possible at the time of the mythical sailor Sinbad. In later years the port of Sur grew rich on the proceeds of the spice and slave trade with the former Omani possessions of Zanzibar and East Africa.

Next, take the coastal route connecting Sur with Muscat. For much of the way, this scenic road is sandwiched between the tall craggy slopes of the eastern Hajar mountains and the sparkling water of the Gulf of Oman. Stop at Wadi Tiwi; this spectacularly deep and narrow gorge is justifiably famous as one of the most beautiful in Oman and extends for 36 kilometers into the Hajar mountains.

The road follows a lovely shimmering glass-like stream and passes through a small traditional stone village and areas of dense cultivation where all manner of fruit trees including dates and bananas grow in profusion. Wadi Tiwi is a truly exotic place.

Next, continue to Muscat stopping briefly at the enormous sinkhole of Bimah en route. Check-in at your hotel on arrival.

Accommodation: The Chedi Hotel, Deluxe Room.
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 8 - At Leisure in Muscat
Today enjoy Muscat at your own leisure.

Accommodation: The Chedi Hotel, Deluxe Room.

Day 10 - Visit Jerash & arrive to Petra.
Today you will be met by a guide who will take you on a tour of Jerash. Jerash is an old city, filled with roman architecture including some well known buildings such as Hadrian's Arch. Jerash also includes a famous hippodrome, where chariot races will have been held and has a capacity of 15,000 spectators.

Some other features include the forum, with its organ-pipe columns arranged around an unusual oval-shaped plaza, it is always breath taking and is one of Jerash's undisputed highlights. The water Baths, once an impressive complex of hot- warm and cold-water baths were used in the Roman times for public bathing . This fulfilled the role of a social club and attracted a wide variety of people who gathered to exchange news and gossip as well as to enjoy music, lectures and performances. The North theatre, most likely used for government meetings originally will have had 14 rows of seating with two vaulted passageways leading to the front. It has five internal arched corridors and are intricately inscribed with the names of delegates who voted in the city council. This rare and precious theatre stands as an ornament as it was still able to be preserved despite the earthquakes that once drastically hit Jerash.

The incredible preservation of the ruins allows for a full tour of the ruins. Jerash also has a modern part to the city, located on the eastern side.

After the tour of Jerash, you will be further transferred to Petra. The drive to Petra is roughly 3.5 hours long.

Accommodation: Movenpick Petra
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 11 - Visit Petra. Petra by night.
Today you will embark on a tour of Petra. Petra lies on the slope of Jebel al-Madhbah (identified by some as the biblical Mount Hor) in a basin among the mountains which form the eastern flank of Arabah (Wadi Araba), the large valley running from the Dead Sea to the Gulf of Aqaba. It has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1985.

Petra is famous for its architecture cut from rock. The grand and ornate buildings sit right within the rocks. Petra is one of the seven wonders of the worlds. Petra was estaiblished due to te nomadic Arabs who took advantage of the proximity to the regional trade routes to establish it as a major trading hub.

You will then return to Petra by night and have a tour in the evening. Due to such limited light pollution, the sky is completely empty and fills with stars. This magical experience is incomparable to anything else. The tour allows you to roam the city whilst it is candle lit with over 1,500 candles. Your evening starts with a stroll down the Siq in complete silence to take in the incredible sights around you. Once you arrive at the Treasury, known as Al Khazneh, you will be requested to be seated and listen to the traditional Jordanian music played by the local Bedouins. This runs usually from 8.30pm to10.30pm on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Accommodation: Movenpick Petra
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 12 - Visit Wadi Rum. Fly to Tel Aviv.
Wadi Rum is everything you would expect of a quintessential desert. It is a harsh environment with extreme weathers; summer heat and chilling winters. This part of the desert is isolatd and largely inhospitable. This allows the area to be hardly disrupted and unspoilt.

From the Desert, you will then move onto the Aquaba/Eliat border. You will cross this border by foot and then be transferred to the Eliat airport. From here you will fly to Tel Aviv and met my your local guide who will take you to your hotel.

Accommodation: The Norman Hotel
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 13, - Visit the City of Jerusalem
Today you will take a tour around Jerusalem. Traditionally, the Old City has been divided into four uneven quarters, although the current designations were introduced only in the 19th century. Today, the Old City is roughly divided into the Muslim Quarter, Christian Quarter, Armenian Quarter and Jewish Quarter. The Old City became a World Heritage Site in 1981.

Today, the status of Jerusalem remains one of the core issues in the Israeli–Palestinian conflict. During the 1948 Arab–Israeli War, West Jerusalem was among the areas captured and later annexed by Israel while East Jerusalem, including the Old City, was captured and later annexed by Jordan. Israel captured East Jerusalem from Jordan during the 1967 Six-Day War and subsequently annexed it into Jerusalem, together with additional surrounding territory. One of Israel's Basic Laws, the 1980 Jerusalem Law, refers to Jerusalem as the country's undivided capital.

All branches of the Israeli government are located in Jerusalem, including the Knesset (Israel's parliament), the residences of the Prime Minister and President, and the Supreme Court. Whilst the international community rejected the annexation as illegal and treats East Jerusalem as Palestinian territory occupied by Israel. Israel has a stronger claim to sovereignty over West Jerusalem. The international community does not recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital, and the city hosts no foreign embassies. Jerusalem is also home to some -governmental Israeli institutions of national importance, such as the Hebrew University and the Israel Museum with its Shrine of the Book.

Jerusalem has been sacred to Judaism for roughly 3000 years, to Christianity for around 2000 years, and to Islam for approximately 1400 years. The 2000 Statistical Yearbook of Jerusalem lists 1204 synagogues, 158 churches, and 73 mosques within the city. Despite efforts to maintain peaceful religious coexistence, some sites, such as the Temple Mount, have been a continuous source of friction and controversy.

Although it might be a political focus, Jerusalem is also home to many artistic and cultures venues. The Israel Museum is located in Jerusalem featuring special exhibits and extensive collections of Judaica, archaeological findings, and Israeli and European art. The Dead Sea Scrolls can also be found in the Museum’s Shrine of the Book.

Accommodation: The Norman Hotel
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 14, - Ein Gedi Hike and Dead Sea Visit
Today your guide will take you on a hikle in the Ein Gedi. This hike can be as long as you would like, ranging rom half an hour to a full length day. The trail is well marked and setting out from the ticket office, you enter the wadi. A wadi is a dry river stream in the desert, although here, due to the David Spring, there is water flowing. The contrast that the wadi provides in its lush green landscape, compared to the surrounding desert is the first astonishing thing you will notice. As you continue, you will soon reach the beautiful David’s Waterfall and the pools in which people will be swimming.

Next you will take a visit to the Dead Sea. This is notoriously well known as people can lie in the sea and float. This is due to the salt in the sea. The excess of salt, means that the density of the sea allows you to float without any effort.

Accommodation: The Norman Hotel
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 15 & 16 - At Leisure at Tel Aviv

Accommodation: The Norman Hotel
Meals: Breakfast.
